ELLENVALE NEWS

APRIL NEWSLETTER

Spring has sprung here at Ellenvale, and we have another eventful month ahead of us!

Our Grade 9 students will be busy making plans for High School in the coming weeks. They will be taking part in O2 interviews, and information sessions for the Africentric Cohort offered at Woodlawn High all while preparing for their final exams in June. Mr. Gabriel and I will be available to support students in completing the application process. Grade 8 students will also be preparing for the Provincial RWM8 assessments coming up in May.

Ellenvale's annual school musical is well underway with Mr. Pettipas, Ms. Burnett, and Ms. Farrell, along with the cast and crew, actively preparing for the May production of Annie - The excitement is definitely mounting! Stay tuned for upcoming dates and show times.

For information on our cellphone and attendance policies, please visit the school website for details.

SPORTS NEWS

Badminton – our badminton teams played hard and represented Ellenvale well at this year's tournament.

Flag Football – Female and Male teams are in the midst of tryouts. Stay tuned for game roster and schedule.
